REQUEST FOR LICENCE BACK (NON-COMMERCIAL WEBSITE)

APRA AMCOS

Membership enquires 1800 642 634 writer@apra.com.au www.apraamcos.com.au

If you want to license your music to be made available on a website for a non-commercial purpose, as explained below, APRA will grant you a licence for this purpose. If the website does not meet this definition, you should use the general licence back application form.

In this document:

Non-Commercial Purposes means:

- there can be no financial benefit to anyone for communicating the music under the sub-licence
- the sub-licensee must be a not-for-profit body that is not publicly funded.

Music means the musical works (including any accompanying words) that you authorised APRA to administer in your membership agreement.
