If you have a share in the performing right to someone's music and they seek permission from APRA to directly license the use of that music, you need to complete this form to give your consent for that licence-back.

In this document:

Form means the attached Request for licence back form, being a request from

MEMBER NAME

("Member") for licence back; (print full name of primary member requesting the licence back)

Music means the musical works (including any accompanying words) that you authorised APRA AMCOS to administer in your membership agreement and specified in the form.

Performing right means the right to perform the music in public and communicate the music to the public (including broadcast).

1. I,
